Thank you for taking the time to nominate a student or self-nominate for a CFAES Student Award. Use this nomination form for the following awards:

Jill A. Pfister Outstanding First-Year Student Award: This award recognizes two, first-year students (freshmen or transfer) who have shown outstanding leadership during their first year at OSU.

CFAES Internship Award: This award recognizes students who have excelled at internships within their respective fields. One award will be granted in each Department, the School of Environment and Natural Resources, and CFAES Wooster.

Outstanding Undergraduate Employee Award: This award is designed to honor those undergraduate students who have contributed to the mission of CFAES, OARDC, or OSU Extension by providing high quality service through their work experience (internships do not apply). Undergraduate student employees in CFAES (including ATI), OARDC, or OSU Extension are eligible for consideration. Nominees must be students enrolled in CFAES. This is not an award for an internship, but rather student workers or work-study positions.

A few things to keep in mind:

- Student employees can self-nominate or be nominated by their faculty/staff supervisor(s). Consideration will be based on the quality of service and contribution to the mission of the program, project, or unit.
- It is best to complete the questions in Word to ensure you have kept the text below the word/character limit and then copy and paste the text into the text box in the survey.
- You can nominate one student for one, all, or some of the awards. If you are nominating multiple students, please complete the survey in full for the first student and start the survey again for the next student.
- Please be sure to click through each page and complete the required information. Your answers have been submitted successfully once you've reached a page that says, "Thank You."

THE OHIO STATE UNIVERSITY

COLLEGE OF FOOD, AGRICULTURAL, AND ENVIRONMENTAL SCIENCES

- Nominations are due February 1, 2024. Each nomination will be reviewed by their respective committee (CFAES Student Council, First-Year Experience, Career Development Office).
