

Small Grants Award for Honors Undergraduates

College of Food, Agricultural, and Environmental Sciences

ELIGIBILITY & REQUIREMENTS:

The Small Grants Award for Honors Undergraduates provides funding up to $2500 for CFAES Honors students engaging in undergraduate research. The amount of funding and the total awards funded are determined by the quality of the application and the amount of funds available. Applications are accepted on a rolling basis, due the first day of each month, and award decisions are made each month. Students receiving funding are required to present their research funded project at the annual CFAES Undergraduate Research Forum and submit a pdf copy of the research poster. To be eligible, students must:

- 1. Be an active Honors student (Honors application approved and on-file in CFAES
- 2. Have a CPHR of 3.4 or above
- 3. Completed the Honors Research Workshop
- 4. Conduct research with an OSU faculty research mentor
- 5. Submit a completed research proposal with this application

Funding is for research support and supplies and cannot be used for student salary or stipend. Small Grants awards are not open to students who have previously received the award. Retroactive funding for projects completed prior to the award period are not eligible.
