

2022 DISTINGUISHED SENIOR

“I was thrilled to accept a job offer at the end of the summer in [McCormick & Co.’s] Quality department. This experience taught me that even if you feel like you’ve been thrown in the deep end and you’re out of your element, hard work and confidence will bring you to success.”

As a freshman, I won the OSU English Department’s First-Year Writing Program Award for Outstanding Research Paper in 2019.

I travelled to Laos with GIVE Volunteer Excursions, where I performed humanitarian and environmental service work.

I played cello in the Buckeye Philharmonic, the student symphony orchestra at OSU.
